7. The Program

The Film Camp for Girls at the Ann Richards School is sponsored by Femme Film Texas, a program of Moving Image Arts & Education, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. This summer marks the second year of the camp. Sixteen girls from all over Austin and its surrounding areas will spend one week learning the nuts and bolts of filmmaking. They'll learn the basics of screenwriting, cinematography, acting, directing and editing. The camp will end with a final screening for parents and faculty on Saturday, August 2, 2008. The staff and faculty of the summer camp include award winning female filmmakers in the Austin community.
